

300 Miles - Wandering Souls (Lyrics)

I wake up and I'm alone
And the city feels so cold
Morning blues and coffee cup the only thing that cheers me up

Oh if I could turn back time
I know everything would be fine

Put on my shoes slip in my coat
Walk down a street that won't lead home
But it's just what I gotta do when dreams are stronger than these roots

Oh my my
I've been dying inside
Thinking about the days i've been by your side
All my life
I spent waiting for this but all I'm longing for
Is 300 Miles away

It's just a job I tell myself and we will meet again someday
But every corner on the street is a place where you don't want to be

In my mind I play It back
Like a movie in my head
Makes me smile when things get rough
Cause I will never give you up

Oh my my
I've been dying inside
Thinking about the days i've been by your side
All my life
I spent waiting for this but all I'm longing for
Is 300 Miles away
